

Business Administration Courses

Fall

REMEMBER TO REGISTER EARLY**

Course Description

Business Administration offers students a powerful option to opportunity to participate in an Association of Business Administration courses that transfer to business, natural resources, and professional programs at Minnesota state universities. Current business students and non-business students can participate in programs that transfer to one of seven Minnesota state universities. Transfer to a university with junior or senior status—E-passion on the popular business program courses work and are available in a number of options—All courses are transferable to business, natural resources, and professional programs at Minnesota state universities with junior or senior status. E-passion on the popular business program courses work and are available in a number of options—All courses are transferable to business, natural resources, and professional programs at Minnesota state universities with junior or senior status.

ELI EDC

| Course | Course Title | Credits | Min C Grade | Transfer |
|--------|---|---------|-------------|----------|
| FYE | First Year Experience | | | |
| B 4 | Introduction to Business and Entrepreneurship | | | |
| B 44 | Leadership Development | | | |
| AD C 4 | Business Computers, Internet - FB, G, A | | | |

Business Administration at Washington State University
Fall

REMEMBER TO REGISTER EARLY**

For interpretation of test results and suggestions on appropriate coursework or career

Business Administration at UNC Charlotte Fall

REMEMBER TO REGISTER EARLY**

University of North Carolina at Charlotte
Business Administration
First Semester

Credits

| FYE | First Year Experience | Credits |
|-----|-----------------------|---------|
|-----|-----------------------|---------|

BUS 101 Introduction to Business and Entrepreneurship